The St. Francis donation envelopes for 2019 calendar year are ready for you to pick up. Please find them in the west vestibule of church. Thank You.

Pray for all who have been hurt by the Supreme Court's Roe V's Wade, decision during its 46 years of legalized abortion on demand.

Greetings from Fr. Pat,

My appreciation to those that contributed so greatly to the Christmas collection, totally $18,273.50 at St. Francis and $5,531.00 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Thank you for your generosity in support of the parishes. I would also like to acknowledge the contributions to the seminary collection of $1,037.00 at St. Francis and $885.00 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. My hope and prayer is for more laborers for the harvest. Thank you for your support of the seminarians.

Pastoral planning continues in our area of the Archdiocese, the last meeting was on November 10th and the next meeting will be January 26th, hosted at St. Francis. As noted in prior updates, the pastoral planning group consists of eight parishes, including St. Francis and OLMC, their pastors and two representatives from each parish. The eight parishes and pastors are as follows:

- St. Francis (Neligh) – Fr. Pat
- Our Lady of Mount Carmel (Tilden) – Fr. Pat
- St. John the Baptist (Petersburg) – Fr. Tomasiewicz
- St. Boniface (Elgin) – Fr. Vogel
- St. Bonaventure (Raeville) – Fr. Vogel
- St. Theresa (Clearwater) – Fr. Norman
- St. Peter (Ewing) – Fr. Norman
- St. John the Baptist (Deloit Township) – Fr. Norman

The parish representatives for St. Francis are Amy Baker and Bob Eggerling and for Our Lady of Mt. Carmel are Cindy Decker and Deb Navratil. I appreciate their willingness to be part of this as we continue pastoral planning efforts.

Importantly, a focus of the group is how the eight parishes can best continue with fewer priests, given the anticipated decline in active priests in the Archdiocese, likely only 2 priests at the eight parishes at some point in the future. The goal is for each parish to stay open and resulting then with only one weekend mass at each parish. The pastoral meetings in ways are focused on how to promote collaboration best to support the eight parishes with fewer priests.

As greater collaboration is hoped for between the parishes, Fr. Norman, Fr. Vogel and I will rotate some weekend masses over the next several months. On the weekend of Feb. 2/3, I will cover Fr. Vogel's masses at St. Boniface and St. Bonaventure, Fr. Norman will be covering my masses at St. Francis and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and Fr. Vogel will cover Fr. Norman's masses at St. Theresa, St. Peter and St. John's. We will do another rotation the weekend of Feb. 23/24.

My anticipation is we will not rotate any over the Lenten Season. We may begin again after Easter, maybe about once a month or so. Our hope is this can be one step to help build familiarity with the priests, for us to get to know the surrounding parishes and to be a helpful foundation for future collaboration. Plus it will provide different homily styles!! Being the only priest here, that is a concern I have, there not being variety, different perspectives and approaches with homilies. I welcome any input or comment you may have. Please feel free to contact me or our parish representatives.

St. Francis of Assisi pray for us!

Coming up I will be going to an Archdiocese of Omaha Clergy Conference, that the Archbishop will be at and a large number of the priests for the Archdiocese. The Conference will be on February 4th and 5th. Given this, please note there will be no mass on Tuesday, Feb. 5th at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel – Fr. Pat

The St Francis Knights of Columbus will be having their Annual One Rose, One Life Campaign the weekend of Jan 19th and 20th. With your prayers and financial generosity the Knights can continue to fight the evil of abortion. "Two thousand twenty seven lives have been saved in one year with your help." There will be a second collection taken up to help with this worthy campaign.
